MISSION 200 (18)

Dir: Volodymyr Sydko | 64 mins | Documentary | Free – Booking Required

Documentary about a Ukrainian woman, who during Russia's full-scale attack put her travel business on hold and began transporting killed military men. Like the mythological Charon, who transfers souls to the other side of the river Styx, she transports the bodies of the dead soldiers. Overcoming thousands of kilometers without any stops and sleep, she transports those who have finished fighting in this world and are on their last voyage.

This documentary is presented by the Stamford Diversity Group.
